Mark your calendar to join neighbors to meet

McKinley Jackson

Tuesday, April 4 at 6:30 pm

at the Templo Logos Church at 9065 John T White

(at the east end of John T White next to our neighborhood)

Dr. Jackson is running for City Council seat District 5. Homeowners of Bentley Village-Waterchase Estates, Randol Mill Villas, and Waterchase@Creek Run have been invited to this event to learn more about Dr. Jackson and his vision for District 5, and for him to learn more about our neighborhood.

There will be a

District 5 Candidate Forum

Monday, April 10th at 6:00 pm

at the Handy-Meadowbrook Community Center

6201 Beaty Street.

Gyna Bivens, McKinley Jackson and Bob Willoughby be on a panel to answer questions about the issues important to District 5 residents.

You can find election dates, links to candidates' websites, and much more about the upcoming elections at:

Success at the 2023 Cowtown Great American CleanUp!

We picked up a dozen bags of trash along John T White in about an hour, and took the full bags to the City's Drop Off site. All participants got cool t-shirts this year! The "Keep Fort Worth Beautiful" organization held a big celebration for this year's volunteers at Trinity Park with food and entertainment for all.

A Huge Thanks to our Bentley Village-Waterchase volunteers!
