BVWNA Annual Zoom Meeting

The Bentley Village Waterchase Neighborhood Association held its annual meeting on Saturday, February 27th via Zoom. Our guest speakers were City Councilwoman Gyna Bivens and FWPD Eastside Commander Leonard Elgin. Our Neighborhood Patrol Officer Travis Ward also joined the call. You can read more about the discussions with our guests, the new at-large Board member positions, and the rest of the BVWNA annual meeting on our website <https://www.bvwna.org/single-post/bvwna-2021-general-meeting>.

Devin Huffines, Huffines Communities, provided an update on how they plan to proceed with the property development east of the Bentley Village-Waterchase neighborhood. BVWNA members voted to accept the proposed by-laws. The most significant change to the by-laws is the inclusion of two (2) at-large members to BVWNA Board. These additional members will aid in the Board's ability to stay on top of emerging issues. Let Us Know If You Are Interested in Serving as an At-Large BVWNA Board member! Click here for BVWNA About Us page where you will find a link to the new bylaws and see the current 2021 BVWNA Board Members.

The BVWNA members voted to accept the proposed 2021 budget and the slate of Board candidates. Congratulations to our new Treasurer Courtney Garner Lewis! And the Board welcomes our new Yard of the Month Committee Co-Chairs, Christy Cruthis & Donyce Parish! Three door-prizes were held during the meeting and BVWNA members won gift certificates to Lowes, Target and OD's Smokepit BBQ.
